

2017 Board of Directors Election Candidate Slate

Michael Ritmiller

A Baltimore native, Michael Ritmiller graduated from the College of Notre Dame of Maryland with an accounting/finance background that has been applied to 15+ years of hospital and research management. He has worked under experienced leadership at major institutions across Maryland, including Johns Hopkins, University of Maryland and most recently as grants manager at Sheppard Pratt Health System. Through these experiences, Mr. Ritmiller has gained a greater understanding of Baltimore's communities and their needs, and looks forward to working with NAMI Metro Baltimore to further strengthen the community.
